

Lines are Drawn for Town Balloting

Contests for five of the eight positions to be filled in the North Dansville elections this fall were established when Democrats selected a slate during Monday evening's party caucus.

The Democrats nominated Republican incumbent supervisor Robert Hart but did not nominate a candidate to oppose Justice John Weidman nor Assessor Carl Fuhrman.

Chosen by the party as candidate for town clerk is Mary Jo Vernam who will oppose Tim Wolfanger, now filling that post by appointment following the retirement of Clyde Boyd.

Two Democratic incumbent councilmen, James Kenna and Robert Conway, were nominated to succeed themselves. They will be opposed by Republicans John Reinholtz and Earl B. Chapman.

Robert W. LeBar was named by Democrats to oppose incumbent assessor Dominick Martello and Jean M. Bovee was nominated to oppose incumbent Jean DeLong for the collector's position.

Robert Minemier served as caucus chairman and Elizabeth J. Boyd was the secretary. Tellers were Joyce Williams and Margaret Lemen. Named to the committee to fill vacancies were Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Lemen.

MRS. MILDRED PIKE

PHONE 335-6102

Mildred Martin, great-grandmother, Christine Brooks, and Lucy Collins of Rochester, both great-aunts, attended a baby shower for Carla Friedman at the home of Pat Megliore in Mt. Morris Saturday. Also attending were Mrs. Joe Friedman of Los Vegas and Annibelle Stein both grandmothers to the baby girl that was born Aug. 28.

Helen Farrell and daughter, Deanna Mastin, were overnight visitors of their sister and aunt, Jean Tuthill of Lewiston over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Pike returned Saturday after spending four days at Black Lake.

Mandy and Joshua Freeberg, children of Keith and Marlene Freeberg, spent the weekend with their grandmother, Mildred Pike, while their parents attended the amateur radio convention in Niagara Falls.

Donna Palmer and Ivan Baird were in Hanover, Pa., Sunday and Monday on business for Henry Everman.

Loretta Kenyon of Belmont and Julie Berggreen of Portville were Friday dinner guests of Millie Pike.

It was 50 years ago that Old Home Day at the Methodist Church here first originated. There were two services with former pastors coming back to take part in the program. The tradition is still in force today with the ladies of the church preparing a donation dinner to begin at noon Sunday, with all the homemade goodies to adorn the guests. The musical program will take place at 2 p.m. after the meal. All are invited to attend this great event!

I wish to thank my friends for their thoughtfulness, prayers, cards, visits, flowers, and food brought into me after my return from the hospital. Thank you and may God bless you all.

Call Tree Sitters To Fall Festival

For those expecting to enter the Tree Sitting Contest during Cohocton's Fall Foliage Festival, Fall's Kaleidoscope, application blanks are now available.

All entrants climb into the trees at 6:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 2. The contest ends the following Sunday at 6 p.m.

Applications are available from Bob Fleishman of Cohocton RD 2, N. Y. 14826 or by telephoning 716-384-5312 or 716-384-5227. The applications must be returned by Oct. 1. With only 31 trees available in the area, applications are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Other plans for the festival include soccer games, flea market, parade, dinners and concerts.
